Supporting Agencies

AZ Department of Health

Baseline for all child care centers in Arizona; provide annual and as needed monitoring of the facility.

AZ First Things First/Quality First

Arizona's initiative to enhance services to young children and families. Provide coaching and evaluations of classrooms and program.

Curriculum Development

We use a collaborative approach to develop our curriculum based on the interests & developmental needs of the children. These are determined through:

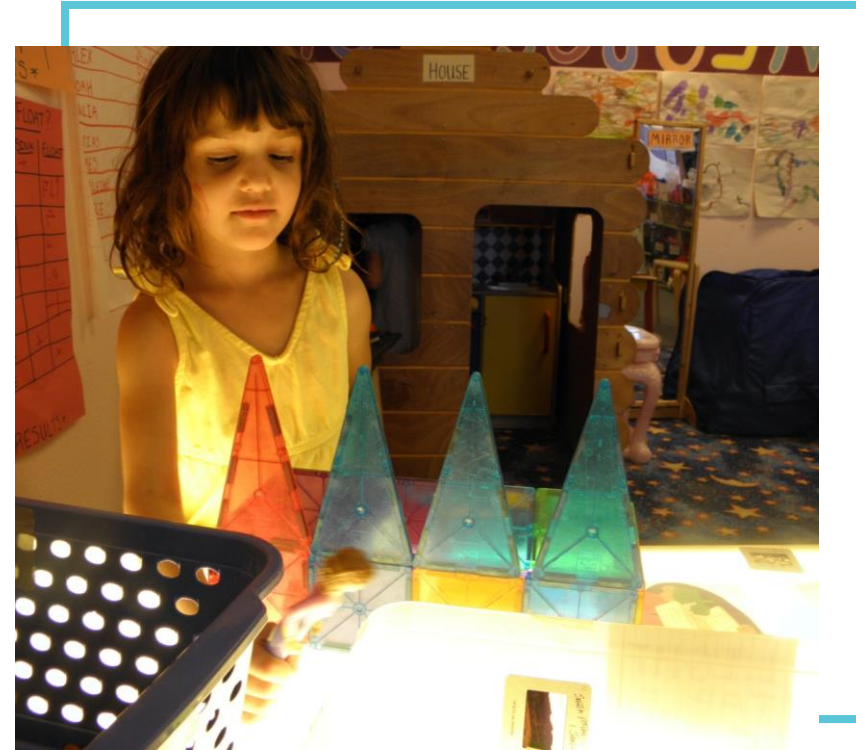

- Observation
- Conversations with children
 - Parent communication
- Collaborative discussions with other educators

EVERYONE BELONGS
& some people join!

Observation & Kid Watching

When we take time to observe young children, we realize the joys and challenges of their learning and interactions. By observing, we can better understand their needs and motivations.

Kids at Play

Children play to learn about their world. As they grow, they are naturally motivated to try more complex tasks. As parents and teachers, we provide environments where children feel safe, secure and willing to try new things.

Art as a Process for Learning

Art experiences are provided as a way for children to learn about color, texture, balance and their own creativity. Our goal is to develop and foster each child's unique talents and embrace what they add to our program.

We are proud to be a part of the Sheva Learning Community network!

Sheva Lenses

We weave the values of the lenses throughout our educational day and professional development

- Awakening (Hit'o'rerut) – Our lives are enriched by a sense of amazement
- Covenant (Brit) – Commitment to self, family, friends, and the world is the foundation for a sense of responsibility and compassion toward others
- Divine Image (Tzelem Elohim) – At each person's core is an undeniable spark of dignity that requires nourishment and encouragement
- Holiness (Kedusha) – We strive to bring our full presence to everything we do, in order to recognize the unique, miraculous nature of every moment of our lives
- Interpretation (D'rash) – A spirit of inquiry is the impetus for growth and reflection
- Journey (Masa) – Telling and retelling stories from our past help us to renew our strength and refine our vision for the future
- Repair the world (Tikkun Olam) – We must live for the benefit of others, both in this generations and for the generations to come

Philosophy

- ◆ The ECE Program provides a safe, nurturing extension of family and community in a developmentally appropriate environment. Children are entrusted to our faculty who model respect, caring, compassion, and cooperation with each interaction. Effective communication between parents and the ECE staff is essential to the program's success
- ◆ Learning is taking place at all times
- ◆ Our faculty works to help children learn positive behaviors rather than punishing negative behaviors.
- ◆ Children are redirected and, if appropriate, given an explanation for the redirection
- ◆ "It's important that we use gentle hands to touch others so that no one is hurt."

Food

The JCC observes Jewish Dietary Laws

Dairy Lunches –Families are not to send in meat or shellfish for their child's lunch.

- Meals will be kept in a refrigerator in your child's classroom
- We will provide feedback on lunches sent and provide ideas

Celebrations & Bringing in Snacks to Share – Families may bring in birthday treats and snacks to share if the food is prepackaged with a specific label (certifications or a heksher).

- Home made items may never be shared in the classroom.
- Fresh fruits and veggies do not require a heksher.

Menu Suggestions

- Macaroni and Cheese
- Pasta with/out sauce
- Peanut butter and crackers
- Deviled eggs
- Veggies with dip
- Tuna salad and crackers
- Fruit salad with cheese
- Macaroni and tuna salad

The Tucson J ECE observes Kashrut standards (Jewish dietary laws). A snack of fresh fruits or vegetables is provided each morning and afternoon. On Fridays, as part of our Shabbat celebration, challah bread is also provided. Lunch may be ordered or brought from home

Illness Policy

Please do not send your child to school if any of the following is observed within 24 hours:

- Fever over 100 degrees (without medication)
- Diarrhea
- Vomiting
- Cold or flu symptoms

We will contact you to pick up your child if we observe any of the above.

We may contact you for information in the case of other symptoms

- Rash
- Discharge from eye
- Bumps/hives
- Etc.

Reporting an Illness

ECE Office

520-615-5437

Please call the ECE Office if your child will be absent.

If your child has been diagnosed with a contagious illness, please report this to the ECE office.

We are required by the AZ Health Department to post notices of all contagious illnesses.

A Successful Start

Separation

- Anxiety in a new situation
- May exhibit behaviors such as shyness, anger, crying or clinging
- Normal part of the human experience and shows an attachment between the parent and child
- Parents and children often share anxiety
- Young children are working on and learning emotional control
- Prep your child
- Provide a consistent, loving, and short goodbye routine
 - Use the classroom threshold
 - Show confidence – be upbeat
 - It's their room
- "See you later alligator"

Attachment

- Forming a bond with teachers or other caregivers
- Allow the child to feel safe and secure in their new environment
- Provide sympathetic response with getting children involved with activities (distraction)
- Acknowledge children's feelings
- Teachers stay close
- Children are able to focus on their own development when they feel secure in their attachments
- Call us
- Communicate what comforts your child
- We look forward to this stage in our partnership together as we comfort and nurture and engage with your child

We Learn Through Play

In play a child always behaves beyond his average age, above his daily behavior. In play it is as though he were a head taller than himself.

~Lev Vygotsky

Man is most nearly himself when he achieves the seriousness of a child at play.

~Heraclitus
